ABOUT IDT 2027

The International Dental Technology & Oral Health Conference (IDT 2027) is a premier global platform uniting dental technologists, clinicians, researchers, educators, and industry leaders from around the world. Scheduled for November 22-24, 2027, the conference will be held in Singapore, with a fully supported online participation option to ensure wider accessibility. IDT 2027 is dedicated to advancing the science and practice of dental technology and oral health through knowledge exchange, hands-on learning, and high-impact discussions. By converging innovation and clinical excellence, the event creates a unique environment where participants gain new perspectives on the future of dentistry.

IDT 2027 provides an exceptional opportunity to connect with peers, expand research visibility, and engage with leading companies showcasing cutting-edge dental equipment, software, and solutions. Whether attending onsite in Singapore or virtually from anywhere in the world, delegates will benefit from high-quality presentations, networking forums, and opportunities for academic and industry partnerships. The conference also welcomes students and early-career professionals, offering them a global stage to present their work and interact with mentors. Join us at IDT 2027 to stay ahead of advancements shaping the next generation of dental technology and oral health innovation.
